Practice Areas

Jay Thomas joins Envisage Law as an Associate Attorney. Having recently received his license to practice law, Jay is excited to apply the hands-on experience he has acquired in law school to help clients with a diverse range of issues. Jay enjoys problem-solving complex issues to reach a solution for clients as effectively and efficiently as possible.

Jay is a passionate advocate. In law school, he participated in moot court and mock trial. There he was inducted into the Order of the Barristers, the national honorary for oral advocacy, and he received the Calhoun Advocacy Award, which is given to the best advocate in Campbell Law's trial and appellate program.

Jay earned his Bachelor of Arts, cum laude, from Hillsdale College. While there, he double majored in Politics and Philosophy. Jay earned his Juris Doctor from Campbell University School of Law, where he served as a Bluebook Editor on the Campbell Law Review. In law school, Jay also interned with the North Carolina Court of Appeals, the United States Attorney's Office Appellate Division, and Envisage Law."

Outside of the office, Jay enjoys time with family and friends.

We exist to help our clients achieve their visions for the future.

We stand shoulder to shoulder with our clients, helping them to anticipate, avoid and overcome challenges and obstacles to their successes.

A Rich Tradition. A Bright Future.
