Originally from the Northeast, Tara graduated from Princeton University with a degree in Art History. She has called North Carolina home since she moved here to attend Duke University School of Law. After graduating magna cum laude, Tara practiced as a healthcare lawyer in the Raleigh area before she paused her career to focus on homeschooling her two children. During that time, she also volunteered extensively in her local community.

As an active attorney once again, Tara joined Envisage for the opportunity to provide personalized legal services in the company of creative and brilliant lawyers. Tara's law practice focuses on transactional and health care work, as well as defending the rights of her clients.

Outside of work, Tara continues to homeschool her son through his high school courses. She and her family also enjoy traveling the country, and they recently achieved their goal of visiting all fifty states.

We exist to help our clients achieve their visions for the future.

We stand shoulder to shoulder with our clients, helping them to anticipate, avoid and overcome challenges and obstacles to their successes.

A Rich Tradition. A Bright Future.
